Secluded Mountain Retreat with Easy NYC Commute One in a million! Discover this private and peaceful home surrounded by nature and breathtaking mountain views. Perfectly located for both relaxation and convenience, you'll enjoy easy access to the Palisades Interstate Parkway and the Haverstraw Ferry for a smooth commute to NYC. Step inside to find a warm and inviting layout featuring a dual-sided fireplace that enhances both the living room and family/dining area. The living room's cathedral ceiling and second-story balcony create an airy, open feel, while large windows fill the space with natural light. The fourth bedroom offers flexible use as a home office, perfect for remote work or creative pursuits. There's ample storage throughout the home, making it as practical as it is beautiful. Outdoor lovers will appreciate being minutes from Bear Mountain and Harriman State Park, ideal for hiking, scenic drives, or a relaxing dinner and massage after a day outdoors. Plus, West Point is just a few miles away. If you're looking for a rare combination of tranquility, comfort, and accessibility, this property truly is one in a million.
